News Release

Want to Learn a New Language or Study for the Naturalization Test?

The Kern County Library is pleased to announce two new FREE online language learning tools for Kern County Library Card holders – Pronunciator and ProCitizen.

About Pronunciator: Language Learning

With 80 of the world's most popular languages and English as a Second Language courses in 50 languages, Pronunciator is focused on quickly building conversational skills through a suite of interactive online drills, scored quizzes, and downloadable audio lessons and phrasebooks.

Pronunciator provides interactive, self-paced language learning by having users create their own login to access the resource and to track their personal progress.

Training modules are available for tourists and business travelers with 350 hours of audio lessons, teaching 1,500 essential everyday phrases. Pronunciator includes targeted lessons for different age groups, including early learners (ages 3-6) and juniors (ages 7-12). The lessons offer both a structured approach, as well as room for an independent learning style.

About ProCitizen: Naturalization Studies

Are you or someone you know preparing to become a United States citizen? Studying for the American citizenship test is easy with ProCitizen. Learn by watching videos, practice with drills and take quizzes to help you know when you are ready to take the U.S. Naturalization Exam. Learn all about democracy, how the U.S. government works, American history and geography, and brush up your English reading and writing skills at the same time.

Pronunciator & ProCitizen can be accessed online with a Kern County Library card number by visiting kerncountylibrary.org/research, click on Bilingual, Spanish & Foreign Language Resources or the Citizenship Resources tab to get started today!
