Kern County Library to Host OverDrive Digital Bookmobile Tuesday, April 29 & Wednesday, April 30, 2014 at 11am-5pm

The Kern County Library is hosting the OverDrive Digital Bookmobile, which highlights free eBook services, on Tuesday April 29 and Wednesday April 30. Visitors can explore the Digital Bookmobile and the library's digital services in the parking lot of Beale Memorial Library, on 701 Truxtun Ave, Bakersfield, CA 93301, from 11am to 5pm during the two day event. Housed inside an 18-wheel, 74-foot tractor-trailer, the Digital Bookmobile is equipped with broadband Internet-connected PCs, high definition monitors, premium sound systems, and a variety of portable media players – all in an effort to showcase the free eBook and eAudiobook downloadable services available at the Kern County Library. Readers of all ages can learn how to download from the library through interactive demonstrations, high definition instructional videos, and a gadget gallery – featuring Kindle® HD, iPad® Mini, Android™ Galaxy Tablet, NOOK™ HD+, Sony® Reader™, Kindle® Paperwhite, Windows® Phone 8, and more.

Customers interested in borrowing from the Kern County eLibrary can access titles by visiting www.kerncountylibrary.org/elibrary. Titles can be enjoyed on all major computers and devices and automatically expire at the end of their lending period. There are no late fees!
