New Northeast Branch Library: Ribbon Cutting & Celebration

Thursday, July 20, 2017 @ 11am

After 23 years at the same location, the Northeast Branch located in Bakersfield, of the Kern County Library will open its doors to the public at its new location, 2671 Oswell St., Suite B, Bakersfield, CA, on Saturday, July 1st.

A celebration with ribbon cutting and other activities for families will take place on Thursday, July 20th at 11am to mark the opening. Mike Maggard, Kern County Supervisor of District 3 said, “While moving is never fun, we have a wonderful opportunity to sustain and improve the delivery of Library services to the residents of the Northeast. I hope the public enjoys the new and improved location.”

“Continuing our annual tradition of the Summer Reading Challenge, there will be a large array of programs and events throughout July at the new Northeast Branch location. We plan to expand early learning, children’s, and teen programming and offer more computers to our customers. Library staff is really excited about the new location and the ability to better serve the public in the new Oswell Street location.” commented Andie Apple, Interim Director of the Kern County Library.

Northeast Branch Library hours are: Tuesday & Thursday 11-7, Saturday 9-5.
